A / 'MR SYMS' CHAIR

Named after the John Coltrane number, this chair is part of a new line, described as stark and modern. By Indian standards, it is. Rs4,500, Red Blue & Yellow, President House, Wodehouse Road, Colaba, tel: 2218 7739

B / TURMERIC SKIN CREAM

Ayurveda is not just a cosmetic conceit, but part of the fabric of Indian life. Turmeric is known for its excellent antiseptic and UV protective properties and, along with sandalwood oil, is the main ingredient in this cream. Vicco cream, Rs97, available at health food stores and chemists

C / TONGUE SCRAPER

Once they were merely stripped neem twigs, now vendors sell psychedelic plastic ones. This silver scraper is fit for royalty. Rs1,350, RH Rai, Cecil Court, near Regal Cinema, tel: 2202 0336

D / FABRIC

You can't go to India and not invest in beautiful fabrics. A few decades ago, Mumbai had many thriving mills. This gold jacquard 1970s design is locally woven at GM Mills, one of the few remaining working mills. Rs225 per metre, Chonilal Mulchand, Madam Cama Road.

E / TIFFIN

A chic alternative to Tupperware, this stainless steel tiffin is a practical souvenir of your visit. Choose from two to five tiers. Rs1,650, Premsons Bazaar, Breach Candy, tel: 2363 6600

F / CUSHIONS

Ignore the endless embroidered cushions you'll find in street bazaars. Instead, plump for these fabulous, spicy-coloured raw silk cushions, decorated with screen-printed portraits. Rs1,739 including post, Good Earth, 3 Cornelian, Kemp's Corner, 104 August Kranti Marg.
